

AN - EDUCATIONIST

- G. J. V. JAGANNATH RAJU

Born on January 4, 1935 at Visakhapatnam. Prof. G.J.V. Jagannath Raju is at present the Chairman of National Board of Accreditation (NBA) of AICTE and Chancellor of Sri. Chandrashakharendra Saraswathy Mahavidyalaya (Deemed University).

He has an illustrious academic career with Masters Degree in Chemical Technology and two Doctorate Degrees. He has guided several students for M. Tech degree and more than ten candidate for Ph. D. He has to his credit over hundred papers Published in National and International journals. He was associated with many research projects.

He has served in various capacities in his professional career. He joined the faculty of Chemical Technology Andhra University in 1954 and served as Reader, Professor, Principal Engineering College. Vice Chancellor Nagarjun University, Visiting Professor I.I.T. Madras.

He has extensively travelled abroad, for lectures, for attending conferences, as a member of delegations etc.

He has worked as a Chairman and member of several academic and administrative bodies of several institutions, AICTE committees. He is a Fellow / Member of several Professional Associations.

He is the winner, of Herdilli award for excellence in basic research in Chemical Engineering, State Award for meritorius Teacher, Prof. Subbayan Gold Medal for contribution in the field of Chemical Engineering and Technology.

Under his stewardship, NBA will develop into a symbol of Quality and Excellence in Technical Education.

